

Colored circles represent radio communication groups

Named boxes represent radios, and have the name of radio they represent

A radio being inside of a group represents that the radio will RECEIVE that group regardless of which group it is set to transmit.

