I have indicated above the Trade, Reserve and/or Transmuted tokens that I think I qualify for, but I understand that True Adventures, Ltd. is the final arbiter of the token tally. I also understand that True Adventures, Ltd. is NOT responsible for any lost or damaged tokens that are involved in this transaction. I hold True Adventures, Ltd. harmless to any loss I may incur—including any tokens lost in the shipment to and from True Adventures, Ltd.

True Adventures, LTD, reserves without limitation, the ability to test and examine each token submitted for authentication. If a token is found to be a forgery, a referral to law enforcement will be made and the counterfeit token kept for evidence and eventually destroyed following a criminal investigation.

Token Recipes (include in your submission)

Please use the following recipe lists to verify you have included the appropriate tokens. For each transmuted token recipe, you not only need to include all the ingredient tokens that are called for, you must include the exact ingredients called for. (E.g., you may not submit 25 Common weapons in lieu of a Dwarven Steel.) Use the tables to check-off each included token. Columns are provided for both you, the collector, and True Dungeon HQ to verify the correct tokens have been included.

When a recipe includes a token that's been printed more than once, unless the recipe calls for a specific version of that token, any year/version of that token is fine.

| Omni Cube 2025 (recipe #2) [†] | Verify | |
|---|--------|-------|
| Ingredients | You | TD HQ |
| Any* twelve Ultra Rare tokens from 2018 or later | | |

[†]Assume the recipes for both OMNI CUBE and OMNI ORB will change annually.

*For an Ultra Rare token to be eligible for use in an Omni recipe, that UR must:

- Have been printed in 2018 or later.
- Be part of the Standard Pack of 20 URs for that year.

If you're not certain whether a token is part of the Standard Pack, look the token up at tokendb.com. If it says "Source: Standard Pack" in the stat block, that token is part of the Standard Pack. If the Source of the UR you're looking up shows anything other than "Standard Pack", that UR is not eligible for use in an Omni recipe.

If a Standard Pack UR was originally printed before 2018 but was later reprinted in 2018 or later, only the 2018 or later version is eligible. E.g., +2 SACRED SLING was printed in both 2014 and 2023. Only the 2023 version could be used in an Omni recipe.

*For an Ultra Rare token to be eligible for use in an Omni recipe, that UR must:

- Have been printed in 2018 or later.
- Be part of the Standard Pack of 20 URs for that year.

If you're not certain whether a token is part of the Standard Pack, look the token up at tokendb.com. If it says "Source: Standard Pack" in the stat block, that token is part of the Standard Pack. If the Source of the UR you're looking up shows anything other than "Standard Pack", that UR is not eligible for use in an Omni recipe.

Please cut these labels apart and then place each label in its corresponding zipper-bag—with the lettering facing out. For Legendaries, please use the “Write In” slips to manually scribe those token names.

Trade Item Categories (do not include this sheet in your submission)

Some Trade Tokens are also available in 10× denominations. 10×s have “peanut butter” backs instead of “chocolate” backs and have “10×” emblazoned over the image.

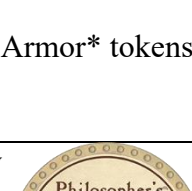

Non-armor and non-weapon tokens convert via a point-based system where the rarity of the token determines its point value:

Common = 1 point

Uncommon = 3 points

Rare = 6 points

| | | |
|--|--|---|
|  | 25 points worth of any Elixir, Oil, Potion, or Salve |  |
|  | 25 points worth of any Scroll, Book, or Tome |  |
|  | 25 of any Rare Armor tokens and/or Rare Weapon tokens For the purpose of Trade Token conversion, ammo is not considered a weapon. | |
|  | 25 points worth of any Charm, Gear, Ioun Stone, or Runestone In general, if an exchangeable token doesn't fit in another category, it converts to Darkwood Plank. |  |
|  | 25 of any Common Weapon tokens For the purpose of Trade Token conversion, ammo is not considered a weapon. |  |
|  | 25 of any Uncommon Weapon tokens For the purpose of Trade Token conversion, ammo is not considered a weapon. | |
|  | 25 points worth of any Ammunition (Arrow, Bolt, Sling Stone, etc.) Shurikens are weapons, not ammo. |  |
|  | 10 of any Monster Trophy tokens (any year or years) Monster Trophies (aka monster bits) can only be obtained by drawing them from the Random Treasure Boxes at the end of an adventure. | |

| | | |
|--|--|---|
|  | 25 of any Common Armor* tokens |  |
|  | 25 points worth of Belts, Boots, Bracers†, Cloaks, Girdles, Gloves, Pants, Shirts, or other articles of clothing †In general, “Bracers” (plural) are considered clothing and “Bracer” (singular) is a weapon. |  |
|  | 25 of any Uncommon Armor* tokens | |
|  | 25 points worth of any Amulet, Bracelet‡, Circlet, Crown, Earcuff, Necklace, Ring, or Wand ‡Not to be confused with “Bracers” or “Bracer” |  |

*Starting with the 2022 print run, anything that equips in the Torso slot counts as armor and is exchangeable for either Aragonite, Minotaur Hide, or Oil of Enchantment. (The Shirt slot is not the same as Torso—Shirts always count toward Mystic Silk.) This change is not retroactive. Older Torso items made out of cloth (e.g., robes) keep their previous conversion designation. If you're unsure, check the item's stat block in the TDb.

Generally speaking, only Commons, Uncommons, Rares, and Monster Trophies can be exchanged for Trade Tokens.

Reserve Bar Tokens

You may exchange gold piece (GP) value tokens for Reserve Bar(s) of an identical value. E.g., you can send in 1,000 GP in small denominations and TD will send you one 1,000 GP Gold Bar token. The current denominations are:

Items With Charges

- If an item has at least one unused charge, it may be converted into a Trade token.
- If all the charges are expended, the item may not be converted into a Trade token.
- An expended Wish Ring may be converted into a Reserve Bar token because it's still worth 1K GP.
